

Restless Minds
© 2014 M Russell

Restless minds

Are ever yearning

To go somewhere

They need not go

Heading out

They go on a journey

To claim things

They need not own

Clicketty-clack

Get back on the track

Listen to your soul

Don't let the wind

Frantically spin

You out of control

Clicketty-clack

Get back on the track

Listen to your soul

Don't let the wind

Frantically spin

You out of control

Restless hearts

Are ever seeking

An oasis

To make their home

Looking outward

Always are reaching

For the peace

They already know
